SECTION 26: SUPPLEMENTARY FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (20 Additional Q&As)

The following additional FAQs address specific and detailed enquiries frequently received by our customer service team.

Q51: What is the best way to get Egyptian currency?

A: ATMs in Egypt (Cairo, Luxor, Sharm, Hurghada airports and major cities) are the best way to get EGP. Bureau de change offices offer competitive rates. We advise against exchanging at airports which offer the worst rates. Notify your bank before travel to avoid card blocks.

Q52: Is Egypt safe for solo female travellers?

A: Egypt is visited by millions of solo female travellers annually. Our packages include guided transport, vetted accommodation, and 24/7 support. We recommend modest dress (shoulders and knees covered outside resorts), avoiding eye contact with persistent vendors, and using licensed taxis or our transfers at all times.

Q53: Do I need a Yellow Fever vaccination for Kenya?

A: Yes – proof of Yellow Fever vaccination is required for entry into Kenya if you are travelling from a country with risk of Yellow Fever transmission (this includes Egypt). Ensure you have an International Certificate of Vaccination (yellow card). Consult your doctor at least 4 weeks before travel.

Q54: Can I use my Egyptian bank card abroad?

A: Yes. Visa and Mastercard from Egyptian banks (CIB, Banque Misr, QNB) are accepted internationally. Inform your bank of your travel dates to avoid blocks. Daily international withdrawal limits vary (typically $200–$500/day). Consider a prepaid travel card (e.g., Revolut) for better rates.

Q55: How do I know if my passport is valid long enough?

A: Most countries require your passport to be valid for at least 6 months beyond your intended return date. Check your passport expiry date before booking. If renewal is needed, allow 4–8 weeks. Some countries accept 3-month validity – we will advise you specifically for each destination.

Q56: Are vegetarian and vegan meals available on all packages?

A: Yes. We can arrange vegetarian and vegan meals at all our contracted hotels and restaurants worldwide. Please specify at the time of booking. In some remote destinations (Sahara camps, mountain lodges), options may be more limited but we always ensure adequate provision.

Q57: What should I do if I lose my passport while travelling?

A: Contact Horizon Tours emergency line immediately (+20-100-234-5678). Then contact the nearest Egyptian Embassy or Consulate to obtain an Emergency Travel Document. You will also need to file a police report in the destination country. Keep a digital scan of your passport in your email at all times.

Q58: Can I bring my drone on a package tour?

A: Drone regulations vary significantly by country. In Egypt, drones require a permit from the Civil Aviation Authority and are prohibited near archaeological sites, airports, and military zones. In many countries, drones require advance registration. Always check destination-specific regulations with us at booking.

Q59: Are tips included in package prices?

A: No. Tipping is not included and is entirely at your discretion. As a guide: tour guides $10–$15/day/person; drivers $5–$8/day/person; hotel porters $1–$2/bag; restaurant wait staff 10–15% of bill. Tipping envelopes are provided by your guide on the last day of most packages.

Q60: How do I access the internet while travelling?

A: We recommend purchasing a local SIM card on arrival for the best data rates. Alternatively, international roaming with Egyptian carriers (Vodafone, Orange, Etisalat) works in 180+ countries – check rates with your operator. Most 4/5-star hotels provide free Wi-Fi.

Q61: Do you offer travel for the elderly or travellers over 70?

A: Absolutely. We specialise in comfortable, pace-appropriate itineraries for senior travellers. Many packages have 'gentle pace' versions with fewer walking distances, accessible vehicles, and ground-floor rooms. Inform us of any mobility or medical requirements at booking.

Q62: What is the difference between a private tour and a group tour?

A: Group tours (8–20 people) follow a fixed itinerary and departure date, offering great value and the chance to meet fellow travellers. Private tours are exclusively for your group (solo, couple, family, or friends), offer flexible scheduling, customised itineraries, and personalised service.

Q63: Can I extend my international package with extra days?

A: Yes! Most packages can be extended with additional hotel nights, extra excursions, or a combination. Please request extensions at booking. Extensions after arrival may be arranged but are subject to availability and may be at higher rates.

Q64: Does Horizon Tours organise school trips?

A: Yes. Our Education Travel division specialises in school and university trips to archaeological and cultural sites in Egypt and internationally. All school trips include enhanced safety protocols, educational guides, parent consent processes, and customised educational objectives.

Q65: What is a typical day on a Nile Cruise?

A: Nile cruises blend sightseeing and relaxation. A typical day: early morning visit to a temple before the heat builds (7–9 AM), return for breakfast on board, sail between sites while you relax on deck or enjoy the pool, afternoon excursion to the next site, dinner on board, optional on-board entertainment. It is a uniquely comfortable way to see Upper Egypt.

Q66: Do I need to exchange money before arriving at my destination?

A: For most destinations, it is fine to arrive with a small amount of local currency (for taxis and tips) obtained at home, and use ATMs on arrival for the rest. We recommend having $50–$100 in local currency available immediately on arrival. We advise against buying large amounts of foreign currency in Egypt before travel.

Q67: Is the food in Moroccan packages suitable for people with nut allergies?

A: Moroccan cuisine uses almonds and other tree nuts extensively in traditional dishes (pastilla, tagines, sweets). If you have a nut allergy, please inform us at booking and we will brief all restaurants and hotels to accommodate you. We recommend carrying an EpiPen and allergy cards translated into Arabic/French.

Q68: What is the process for claiming travel insurance?

A: In the event of a claimable incident: keep all receipts, reports, and documentation. File a police report for theft/loss immediately. Notify your insurer within 24 hours via their emergency line (number on your policy document). Horizon Tours can assist with documentation and letters to support your claim.

Q69: Can Horizon Tours arrange a destination wedding abroad?

A: Yes! Our Destination Weddings team has organised ceremonies in Santorini, Dubai, Marrakech, Bali, and the Maldives. We coordinate venue, flowers, photographer, catering, civil/religious ceremony requirements, guest accommodation, and honeymoon extension. Contact weddings@horizontours.com.

Q70: What is the minimum age for the Everest Base Camp trek?

A: The minimum recommended age for our Everest Base Camp trek is 14 years old, and all participants under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. Participants of any age must have prior multi-day trekking experience and be in good physical condition. A medical clearance form is required for all trekkers.

Our Egyptology educational programme for schools (Grades 5–12) has won the Egyptian Ministry of Education's 'Excellence in Educational Tourism' award for four consecutive years.

SECTION 35: DESTINATION-SPECIFIC TRAVEL TIPS & CULTURAL GUIDANCE

Horizon Tours provides the following practical and cultural guidance for key destination regions. Understanding local customs, laws, and etiquette ensures a respectful, safe, and enjoyable experience.

35.1 Middle East (UAE, Saudi Arabia, Jordan)

Dress Code: Conservative dress is required in all three countries, particularly at religious sites. Shoulders and knees must be covered when entering mosques. Women are not required to wear a hijab in public in the UAE or Jordan, but should carry a shawl. In Saudi Arabia, while mandatory public abaya requirements for foreign women were relaxed in 2019, modest dress remains expected.

Ramadan: Travelling during Ramadan requires respect for local customs. Eating, drinking, and smoking in public during daylight hours is prohibited in UAE and Saudi Arabia, and offensive in Jordan. Many restaurants are closed during the day or serve behind screens. After iftar (sunset), the atmosphere becomes festive and vibrant.

Photography: Never photograph government buildings, military installations, or people (especially women) without explicit permission. In Saudi Arabia, restrictions are particularly strict. In Jordan, photography at most tourist sites is freely permitted.

Currency: UAE Dirham (AED), Saudi Riyal (SAR), Jordanian Dinar (JOD). USD is widely accepted in the UAE. ATMs are readily available in all cities.

35.2 Europe (France, Italy, Spain, UK)

Healthcare: Egypt has reciprocal healthcare agreements with some European countries, but coverage is limited. Comprehensive travel insurance with medical evacuation cover is strongly recommended. Carry a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) if applicable (Egyptian citizens are not eligible but some residents of Europe may carry one).

Tipping: Tipping customs vary. In France, service is included in the bill (service compris) – round up as a courtesy. In the UK, 10–15% in restaurants is standard, not mandatory. In Italy, tipping is not expected but appreciated. In Spain, rounding up or leaving small change is the norm.

Transport: Train networks are extensive and efficient throughout Europe. The Eurail pass is available for non-European residents visiting Europe. Horizon Tours can arrange Eurail passes as part of European packages. In the UK, the Oyster card (or contactless payment) covers London transport. In Paris, a Navigo Easy card covers the Metro and RER.

Safety: Pickpocketing is common in tourist areas of Paris, Barcelona, and Rome. Use money belts, keep bags zipped and in front of you, and be aware of distraction techniques near tourist attractions and on public transport.

35.3 Asia (Thailand, Japan, Indonesia, Malaysia)

Thailand: Temple dress code is enforced at Wat Phra Kaew (Grand Palace) – long trousers/skirt and covered shoulders; sarongs are rented at the gate if needed. Respect the monarchy at all times – criticising the royal family (lèse-majesté) is a serious criminal offence. Never touch anyone's head. Shoes are removed before entering temples and many restaurants. Tipping: 20–50 THB for good service in restaurants; not expected in taxis.

Japan: Japan is one of the world's safest countries for tourists. Remove shoes when entering homes, many ryokans, and some restaurants (look for genkan entrance step). Eating while walking is considered impolite. Never tip – tipping can be considered rude. Carry cash; many smaller establishments do not accept cards. The IC card (Suica/Pasmo) works on all trains, buses, and in convenience stores. Onsen (hot springs) etiquette: wash before entering, no swimwear, and tattoos are prohibited at most traditional onsen.

Bali/Indonesia: Bali is a deeply spiritual island. When visiting temples, sarongs and sashes must be worn (available at temple gates). Women on their period are not permitted to enter temples (as per Hindu custom). Offering ceremonies are performed daily – respect and do not interrupt. Physical affection in public is frowned upon. The Balinese New Year (Nyepi, 'Day of Silence') is unique: the entire island shuts down for 24 hours; no travel, no lights, no noise – a profound cultural experience.

35.4 Africa (Kenya, Morocco, South Africa)

Kenya (Safari): The 'Big Five' (lion, elephant, buffalo, leopard, rhino) are the stars of a Kenyan safari. Game drives are at dawn (6:00–9:00 AM) and dusk (4:00–7:00 PM) when animals are most active. Never leave the safari vehicle without your guide's permission. Wear neutral colours (khaki, olive, beige) – avoid white (attracts insects) and blue (attracts tsetse flies). Malaria prophylaxis is essential for most Kenyan national parks.

Morocco: Morocco's medinas are maze-like and fascinating. The local guides assigned by Horizon Tours are licensed and essential – unofficial 'guides' may lead to unwanted shopping detours. Bargaining is expected in souks but not in fixed-price shops (look for prix fixe signs). The call to prayer (adhan) is heard five times daily; pause and respect when it occurs near mosques. Women travelling alone may attract unwanted attention in some medinas – our female travellers are accompanied by a local female guide on request.
